SalsaCrazy / DanceCrazy Productions — San Francisco

Our story

DanceCrazy Productions has been teaching salsa and bachata and throwing social dance nights in San Francisco for over 30 years. SalsaCrazy Mondays, our weekly class and social at Neck of the Woods in the Inner Richmond, has been running for more than 20 of them.

Every night follows the same simple shape: a beginner-friendly class with rotating partners, then hours of open social dancing. No partner and no experience are needed, which is why so many people's first ever dance happened on one of our floors.

Across 11 years on Eventbrite alone we have hosted over 1,400 events and welcomed more than 105,400 guests through the doors of our San Francisco nights.
